Finding Books at Rebecca Crown Library
This handout will show you how to find books in the library.

1. Search for books:
   - Go to the Rebecca Crown Library homepage: www.dom.edu/library.
   - Type your search term in the search bar and click “Find”.

   ![Search Interface]

   - You can search by keyword, title, author, or subject to locate books.

2. Results:
   - A results page will open with a list of items related to your search.
   - You can refine your search by using the options listed on the right side of the screen under “Narrow Your Search”. Click “Book” to narrow this list to just books.

   ![Results Display]

3. Information about the book:
   - Click the title of the book to get more information about the item.
   - The “Location & Availability” tab will tell you where the book is located and if it is available.
