Using Databases at Rebecca Crown Library
This handout shows you how to access databases from the Rebecca Crown Library.

1. Go to the Rebecca Crown Library homepage
   - Start at www.dom.edu/library and go to the “Find a Database” tab.
   - Select a specific database by name from the drop down menu or click the “View More Results” to see a full list of databases.

2. Find the database you need
   - Use the Subjects menu to find databases by topic, and the Database Types menu to find databases with certain types of content.
   - Use the alphabet menu when you know the name of the database you want.

3. Open the database by clicking the title
   - If you’re off-campus, log in with your Dominican username and password.
